

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
MERIT SYSTEMS PROTECTION BOARD

TONY ALEXANDER WILSON,
Appellant,

DOCKET NUMBER
PH-0432-17-0273-I-1

v.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY, Agency.

DATE: November 22, 2022

Tony Alexander Wilson, Milford, Delaware, pro se.

Byron D. Smalley, Esquire, and Mark A. Wines, Esquire, Washington, D.C., for the agency.

BEFORE

Cathy A. Harris, Vice Chairman
Raymond A. Limon, Member
Tristan L. Leavitt, Member

FINAL ORDER

¶1 The appellant has filed a petition for review of the initial decision, which sustained his removal. For the reasons set forth below, the appellant's petition for review is DISMISSED for lack of a substitute party. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.35.

<sup>1</sup> A nonprecedential order is one that the Board has determined does not add significantly to the body of MSPB case law. Parties may cite nonprecedential orders, but such orders have no precedential value; the Board and administrative judges are not required to follow or distinguish them in any future decisions. In contrast, a precedential decision issued as an Opinion and Order has been identified by the Board as significantly contributing to the Board's case law. See 5 C.F.R. § 1201.117\(c\).

¶2 In May 2017, the agency removed the appellant from service. Initial Appeal File (IAF), Tab 5 at 12, Tab 10 at 27-36. The appellant filed a Board appeal, challenging that removal action. IAF, Tab 1. After developing the record, the administrative judge sustained his removal. IAF, Tab 44, Initial Decision. The appellant filed a timely petition for review, after which the agency responded, and the appellant replied. Petition for Review (PFR) File, Tabs 1, 3-4.

¶3 In July 2019, while the appellant's petition for review was still pending, the agency filed argument and evidence that the appellant passed away. PFR File, Tab 5. Among other things, the agency argued that the appellant's petition for review should be dismissed in the absence of a substitute party. Id. at 5. The agency served this pleading electronically, consistent with the appellant's status as an e-filer. Id. at 6; see IAF, Tab 1 at 2. The agency also served this pleading to the appellant's last known address, via regular mail and certified mail. PFR File, Tab 5 at 6. Nevertheless, no representative or proper party submitted a response.

¶4 The pertinent Board regulation provides that if an appellant dies or is otherwise unable to pursue the appeal, the processing of the appeal will only be completed upon substitution of a proper party. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.35\(a\); see, e.g., Estate of Kravitz v. Department of the Navy, 110 M.S.P.R. 97, ¶ 2 n.1 (2008) (finding that substitution was proper where an appellant passed away while his appeal was pending and the appellant's counsel submitted a motion for the widow to be a substitute party); Cole v. Department of Veterans Affairs, 77 M.S.P.R. 434, 434 n.1 (1998) (granting a motion to substitute the administrator of an appellant's estate, where the appellant died as his petition for review was pending). The regulation further explains that the representative or proper party must file a motion for substitution within 90 days after the death or other disabling event, except for good cause shown. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.35\(b\).

¶5 Though not required under the Board's regulations, the agency's pleading effectively sought out a substitute party. Those efforts were unsuccessful.

Accordingly, we dismiss the instant petition for review for lack of a substitute party. This is the final decision of the Merit Systems Protection Board regarding the appellant's petition for review. The initial decision remains the final decision of the Board regarding the appellant's removal.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS<sup>2</sup>

You may obtain review of this final decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(a)(1). By statute, the nature of your claims determines the time limit for seeking such review and the appropriate forum with which to file. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(b). Although we offer the following summary of available appeal rights, the Merit Systems Protection Board does not provide legal advice on which option is most appropriate for your situation and the rights described below do not represent a statement of how courts will rule regarding which cases fall within their jurisdiction. If you wish to seek review of this final decision, you should immediately review the law applicable to your claims and carefully follow all filing time limits and requirements. Failure to file within the applicable time limit may result in the dismissal of your case by your chosen forum.

Please read carefully each of the three main possible choices of review below to decide which one applies to your particular case. If you have questions about whether a particular forum is the appropriate one to review your case, you should contact that forum for more information.

(1) Judicial review in general. As a general rule, an appellant seeking judicial review of a final Board order must file a petition for review with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, which must be received by the court within 60 calendar days of the date of issuance of this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(b)(1)(A).

<sup>2</sup> Since the issuance of the initial decision in this matter, the Board may have updated the notice of review rights included in final decisions. As indicated in the notice, the Board cannot advise which option is most appropriate in any matter.

If you submit a petition for review to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you must submit your petition to the court at the following address:

U.S. Court of Appeals
for the Federal Circuit
717 Madison Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20439

Additional information about the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is available at the court's website, www.cafc.uscourts.gov. Of particular relevance is the court's "Guide for Pro Se Petitioners and Appellants," which is contained within the court's Rules of Practice, and Forms 5, 6, 10, and 11.

If you are interested in securing pro bono representation for an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you may visit our website at <http://www.mspb.gov/probono> for information regarding pro bono representation for Merit Systems Protection Board appellants before the Federal Circuit. The Board neither endorses the services provided by any attorney nor warrants that any attorney will accept representation in a given case.

(2) Judicial or EEOC review of cases involving a claim of discrimination. This option applies to you only if you have claimed that you were affected by an action that is appealable to the Board and that such action was based, in whole or in part, on unlawful discrimination. If so, you may obtain judicial review of this decision—including a disposition of your discrimination claims—by filing a civil action with an appropriate U.S. district court (not the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit), within 30 calendar days after you receive this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(2\); see Perry v. Merit Systems Protection Board, 582 U.S. ____ , 137 S.Ct. 1975 (2017). If you have a representative in this case, and your representative receives this decision before you do, then you must file with the district court no later than 30 calendar days after your representative receives this decision. If the action involves a claim of discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or a disabling condition, you may be entitled to representation by a court-appointed lawyer and to waiver of any requirement of prepayment of fees, costs, or other security. See 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5\(f\) and 29 U.S.C. § 794a.

Contact information for U.S. district courts can be found at their respective websites, which can be accessed through the link below:

http://www.uscourts.gov/Court\_Locator/CourtWebsites.aspx.

Alternatively, you may request review by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) of your discrimination claims only, excluding all other issues. 5 U.S.C. § 7702\(b\)\(1\). You must file any such request with the EEOC's Office of Federal Operations within 30 calendar days after you receive this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7702\(b\)\(1\). If you have a representative in this case, and your representative receives this decision before you do, then you must file with the EEOC no later than 30 calendar days after your representative receives this decision.

If you submit a request for review to the EEOC by regular U.S. mail, the address of the EEOC is:

Office of Federal Operations
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
P.O. Box 77960
Washington, D.C. 20013

If you submit a request for review to the EEOC via commercial delivery or by a method requiring a signature, it must be addressed to:

Office of Federal Operations
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
131 M Street, N.E.
Suite 5SW12G
Washington, D.C. 20507

(3) Judicial review pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act of 2012. This option applies to you only if you have raised claims of reprisal for whistleblowing disclosures under 5 U.S.C. § 2302\(b\)\(8\) or other protected activities listed in 5 U.S.C. § 2302\(b\)\(9\)\(A\)\(i\), \(B\), \(C\), or \(D\). If so, and your judicial petition for review “raises no challenge to the Board’s disposition of allegations of a prohibited personnel practice described in section 2302(b) other than practices described in section 2302(b)(8), or 2302(b)(9)(A)(i), (B), (C), or (D),” then you may file a petition for judicial review either with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or any court of appeals of competent jurisdiction.<sup>3</sup> The court of appeals must receive your petition for review within 60 days of the date of issuance of this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(1\)\(B\).

If you submit a petition for judicial review to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you must submit your petition to the court at the following address:

U.S. Court of Appeals
for the Federal Circuit
717 Madison Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20439

Additional information about the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is available at the court’s website, www.cafc.uscourts.gov. Of particular relevance is the court’s “Guide for Pro Se Petitioners and Appellants,” which is contained within the court’s Rules of Practice, and Forms 5, 6, 10, and 11.
